Obituary

God only chooses his best, so on December 30th he chose LA Treace W. Dixion one of God's finest servants to be called from labor to reward. He said to her you have fought a good fight you have finished your course and now it is time to· lay down your cross and get your crown. So today we celebrate the home going of LA Treace W. Dixion, born on May 3rd, 1969 to the proud parent's of Deacon Willie Dixion and Missionary Mazie Dixion of Albany, CA.

LA Treace, Graduated from Encinal High School in Alameda, CA. She also studied music at the College of Alameda for one year. She went on to pursue a culinary certificate in 2013 at the Berkeley bread box project where she was at the top of her class. LA Treace excelled at everything she put her heart and mind to. A very loving and courageous woman of God, LA Treace accepted Christ at an early age. She was baptized after uniting with the Ephesians COGIC under the late Dad Clevland and after his transition she remained faithful to her church now presently under the leadership of Bishop Robert Carr.

LA Treace loved the Lord and faithfully worked in every department of ministry to encourage, uplift and fulfill the duties of a Christian. She was the drummer for the choir. She worked with the witness team, witnessing to those that were lost. She was the Sunday School secretary among many things, if she saw a need she would fill it, this was a reflection of her life. She touched so many people. Her neighborhood was her haven, she would not hesitate to step in when the neighbors needed her for in home care duties, transportation or to even just sit and lend a ear. She loved her family, friends and all that she would meet. Her passion for music was so apparent that often times groups and churches would call on her to play the drums. She began playing around 6 years old. Her mom had started her out playing the piano however she loved the drums and taught herself to be the great female drummer she was today.

LA Treace leaves behind a great legacy and her story shall never be forgotten for the love and kindness she shared with us all. Her parent's Willie Dixion and Mazie Dixion and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends. To be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Rest in peace God's Angel.
